OVPC Terms and Conditions

Any person applying for Camp is understood to be in good physical and emotional health, responsive to normal Camp authority and discipline. The Director reserves the right to dismiss any camper if necessary for the good of the Camp and/or the camper.

It is understood that the parent(s) or guardian(s) submitting this registration are those holding legal custody of the person named in the application, and are taking full responsibility for the payment of fees and expenses incurred.

In signing the registration form, the parent(s) or guardian(s) agree to permit the Camp Director to obtain emergency medical treatment as appropriate for the person named in the application. It is understood that there would be no charge for minor medical expenses performed by qualified Camp Staff, but charges related to serious illness or accident would be the responsibility of the parent(s) or guardian(s) submitting this application.

There will be no reduction of fees for campers arriving at the camp late, or leaving early.

While every precaution shall be taken to ensure the good welfare of every camper at OVPC, its Directors, Board members and Staff are hereby released from any/all liability in the even of accident, illness or misfortune.
